

Here is a list just to give you an idea of all the fun trainings we offer to Adult Volunteers = things the Girls can do!

Training Descriptions

Basic Leadership Training (BLT)

This session will give adult volunteers the tools to manage a group of girls while providing a safe experience, describing the importance of the components of the Girl Scout Leadership Experience, submitting Council forms, and understanding the leadership role. This training is required for all Leaders within three (3) months of appointment. Participants MUST attend New Leader Orientation prior to attending this class. Cost: FREE

Program, Badges and Journeys (PB&J)

This session provides information to assist you in developing a quality program filled with badges and journeys. Leaders will learn how to organize a year as well as plan a meeting. This training is required for all new Leaders within three (3) months of appointment and current Leaders bridging to next age level. Cost: FREE

First Aid / CPR Training (Level I)

This basic level is for the adult acting as the first aider for most Troop activities (see Safety Activity Checkpoints) and is valid for two years through Medic First Aid. This training consists of hands-on, lecture and visual information on administering CPR/first aid to adults, children and infants. Cost: $25.00

Trip Planning Training

This home study course is required prior to taking your Troop on any overnight experience. Learn how to plan, carry-out and evaluate day trips or overnight sleepovers (not camping). Contact customer care at customercare@girlscoutscs.org or (800) 490-8653 to request the home study course. Cost: FREE

Outdoor Training (Part A & Part B)

This training covers budgeting, meal and equipment planning, outdoor cooking, equipment selection, outdoor activity ideas, outdoor skills, and Troop government in an outdoor setting. This class consists of two parts: (Part A) a pre-planning session where you will work with other Leaders to plan meals, equipment, and a full day of outdoor fun! (Part B) the outside, hands-on portion. Outdoor Training is mandatory for Troops taking an overnight outdoor trip and/or cooking outdoors with girls. Cost: FREE

Extended Trip Planning

This is a required course for Leaders taking their Troops on trips over 72 hours and/or international trips. You will learn the requirements for extended trip travel, insurance, finances and forms. Each course is held upon request; contact customer care at customercare@girlscoutscs.org for an appointment. Cost: FREE

Event Planning Training

This home study course is recommended for volunteers running an event for a Service Unit or an event where participants will include members of more than one Troop. Learn the logistics of planning, promoting, delivering and evaluating an event. It is STRONGLY recommended that more than one person from each Service Unit be trained. Contact customer care to request the home study course. Cost: FREE
